

NOW.
A CALCULATOR WITHOUT KEYS.

ALSO THE WORLD'S THINNEST.

This marvel is a calculator.

It is approximately 6/32 of an inch thin. And it has no keys.

As you press the entry panel of the Sharp Super Thin Man, an electronic tone verifies your entries. If you don't want the tone, it becomes as silent as a well-kept secret.

What else does it do?

Everything you want a calculator to do. And more. Its miracle energy-saving circuitry can provide years of battery life. And automatic shutoff reduces battery drain.

It comes to you complete with batteries and elegant wallet.

The Super Thin Man (Model EL-8130). It's special. It should be. It's from Sharp, the Calculator Specialist.

SUPER THIN MAN.
